Footprints in the sands of time. That proverb is perfect if you happen to have lots of sand but if you happen to be a little short of sand, snow works just as well. The meaning is still there; looking back on the ways of your life and glancing back to see if you have someone following in them. Your Lariat is representative of those four years of footprints through the sands and snows of high school.
 This is the way you were.

MR. RICHARD MYLIN: Mr. Mylin was the band director to Lemmon High School for many years. The room in which he worked is filled numerous awards of merit toward his greatest achievements. It is so hard to fill the place of someone who has put in so much for so long. Everyone will always remember Mr. Mylin because he is a man who cannot easily be forgotten. He was great while he was here but as the saying goes, "All good things must come to an end." Mr. Mylin, we wish you a long and happy retirement.

MR. WILLIAM KOHN: Mr. Kohn was our Physical Education teacher from way back. He also taught business education and was our football and basketball coach for many years. Last year Mr. Kohn took a step up the ladder to become principal. We feel that he may have been one of the best that Lemmon High School has ever had. Mr. Kohn retired from school activities at the end of that school season to take over the Snyder's Store. The best of luck to the new owner of Kohn's Sport Shop.

This year Cross Country wasn't taken quite so for granted. Sure there weren't many people at the meets but there were a lot more than last year. Still our guys had great spirit and did their best to win their meets. Keep on runnin' guys, you'll go far.

Another year, another class of freshmen, and what a bunch! (of bananas?) But what can we say, except that there was the usual beginning activities of high school. They'll probably never forget the freshmen get initiated, or rather "acquainted" dance either will they upperclassmen?

The one act play this year was "The Ugly Duckling." When we went to contest at Mobridge, we didn't do too well as a whole, however, we had three individual awards. Chuck Erhart - best actor, Diana Hintz - best supporting actress, and Steve Seidel - best supporting actor.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

This was the year for Women's Lib. The girls attracted huge crowds and were very high spirited. These were some of the most exciting games seen in a long time in LHS. Good going girls.

WRESTLING SUMMARY:

The 1974-75 season turned out to be a building season to say the least. With only three seniors on the squad, all other positions had to be filled with underclassmen. After a few matches filled with injuries most of the squad were underclassmen. Our duals left much to be desired in the win column, however, our younger members gained experience that should be quite valuable to them in the next few years. At least we can say that there is only one direction that we can move: UP.

This was a great year for spirit. The Pep Club wasn't as large as it has been before but with all of the power behind them you couldn't tell. We had fewer pep rallies also, but it just made all of them, can you count them?, even more worthwhile.

This year the Juniors did the usual bit of selling concessions for money so we could have a really super prom night. They succeeded with a little bit of difficulty but it pulled off just fine. It was the very first year for the "Junior Junk Shop," located in the old ticket booth. Next year we know will be great because the class of 1976 will be in command. Lots of luck people.

1975 Senior Class Prophecy

The other day I came upon a Gypsy Fortune Teller. When I asked her to fortell my future, she insisted that since this is the magic year of 1975, I must relate to each Senior where he or she will be 20 years from now in 1995.

JASON BAUMEISTER is a basement contractor. He has the best basements in the world.

SHELLY ALNESS is the first female head of the Mafia. With all those brains she'll get rich quick.

STEVE BALLENGER and BRAD ROGERS have gone into business together as auto body repairmen. Nerd & Ferd Repair Shop is one of the best. Practice makes perfect huh guys?

WILLARD BARNES owns his own delicatessen. Keep on crunchin' those crawdads!

DEBBIE BARONE is still self employed. She's taken over the Palace Cafe.

MARVIN ROSO is the new paster of the Church of God. JAN HUBER is his star soul singer.

Gov. MIKE RIEDY & First Lady JANE (CHRISTMAN) are living in Pierre in the Governors mansion. Ya got any pigs Mike?

TIM HOLDAHL is official time keeper for the Class of '75. Be sure and keep the clock wound so we don't run down.

KIM WAGNER is Tupper-ware representative for Lemmon. She's still as tight as her tupper-ware lids.

MIKE MIZERA spends most of his free time catching Millers under his yard light.

TIM KVALE is working at the Case Inp. Whenever he cuts his finger, Nurse CHARLOTTE can make it all better!

DAVE DAVISON and DAN CORCORAN are co-owners of an establishment in Mexico. The Alcapoco Gold Mine exports 90 Million pounds a year.

SCOTT HOISINGTON is offensive guard for Notra Dame. We thought you were better at throwing passes Scott.

BETTY CORCORAN is an aid at the 'Little Orphan Annie Nursery School.' She sets a perfect example for her students.

CHUCK ERHART is ace photographer for Playgirl magazine, with RON EVEN as his prize winning centerfold.

GERALD MEIDINGER is still driving around trying to figure out who ran into his car Senior Skip Day.

LEIGH ANNE SCHNELL is owner of the Texico on the 4-lane. It's the only way she could afford to keep Little Red running.

TIM HESS is a refrigerator repair man. Keep away from that Freon in the atmosphere.

DAVE BARTHOLOMEW is Asst. Track Coach at LHS. Keep on the good side Dave.

KELLY DEWEY just celebrated her 20th wedding anniversary. She's still living in Lemmon just takin' it easy.

JIM PETIK is LHS's new Ag. Teacher. His judging teams are the best in the state.

TERRY (SNOOSE) ZENT is Police Chief of Lemmon. If ya can't beet 'em join 'em.

20 years later DON LANDIS is finally a drag racer. His Blue Bomb is the funniest car on the strip.

AL LARSON is an interpreter to Germany. His favorite word is Yana. (Jane)

CONNIE MILLER is driving truck for Heeren Trucking--Love those fringe benefits.

MILLIE MIZERA & CORA OBERLANDER seem to be making frequent stops at Kulmans. The manager has a smile they just can't resist.

RON CAIN is a mechanic in Scotland. He just can't keep away from those Ladds and Lassies.

SHERRY LADD and DEBBIE HILSENDAGER are also working in Scotland. They're using the same Cain to walk with.

SHARON LILLEHAUG is co-owner of a cracker jack cowboy ranch. It's called Sharon And'er sons.

We don't know where ANTON GOERES is, but we've built a likeness of him on the corner of 6th and Main.

MIKE HOWARD is a retired forward for the Lakers. His head got so big they couldn't tell it from the ball.

NANCY SKJOLDAL is owner of the Los Angeles Lakers. She has a pin handy to burst any large circular objects that go dribbling by.

BRENDA NELSON lives in a large ranch type home. The color scheme is 'Pink.'

MIKE BELL is still working in the cereal isle of the Super Value. Start your breakfast with Toni.

DARLENE HAM is working at Wolff's Heating & Plumbing. She likes to use Rags to wipe up the floor with.

PAULETT SCHLIESMAN is still single and working as private secretary to the new manager of the Co-op station. U-del-vil you!

BECKY CHRISTMAN is now a Dental Hygenist for the Navy. Guess whose mouth she works on the most.

JOHN JANGULA is demonstrator for the Clairol Hair Care Company. He shows you how to keep your hair looking neet and controled.

JOE (PEANUT BUTTER) UTTER owns his own Peanut butter factory. Caution . . . this peanut butter may be hazzardus to your mind.

BOB (RT) KREBS is owner of Kreb's & Son's & Son's & Son's. You may be short, but kynamite comes in small packages.

WAYNE KLING is still one heck of a cowboy. Unfortunately, he can no longer attend the round ups. After all, any horse would freak after seeing a 300 pl. Teddy Bear comin' after it.

TONI TEXLEY is happily married with four little ding-a-lings running around the house.

SANDY JAHNEL and DEBBIE HENRY are fighting over who's really the original Mrs. Olson.

LORI KRAUSE is the official band-aid tester for Johnson & Johnson. Sometimes that can be a pretty sticky situation.

JUNE HINTZ is now working on the street maintenance crew for Lemmon. She can STILL tell you every crack on Main Street.

SUSIE (MISS LEMMON '75) SPENNY and VICKIE (JUNIOR MISS) RIEGER are judges for the MR. America Pagent. They know talent when they see it. NATE SKJOLDAH has just won for his 5th consecutive year.

RICHARD (O.D.) SMITH is now working in Kohn's Sport Shop. He and Bill are still the best of friends.

MIKE SEIDLE is still driving around listening to that song about the van.

BETH GINTHER is still barrel racing, but she's substituted kegs with an extra long hose.

KEN SCHOPP and WAYNE (WEENER CAT) MALLOY are two of the top stunt drivers in the country. Now they know how to rod 'em without wreckin' 'em.

ANGIE KOSTELECKY is now secretary to the treasurer of the U.S. It pays to work hard.

MEDA CATCHPOLE is a stunt woman in Hollywood. Her specialty is hanging out of pick-ups around sharp corners.

DOUG (OLE) OLSON is now helping Mother Goose write Nursery Rhymes. His favorite one seems to be Georgie-Porgie-Pudin' & Pie.

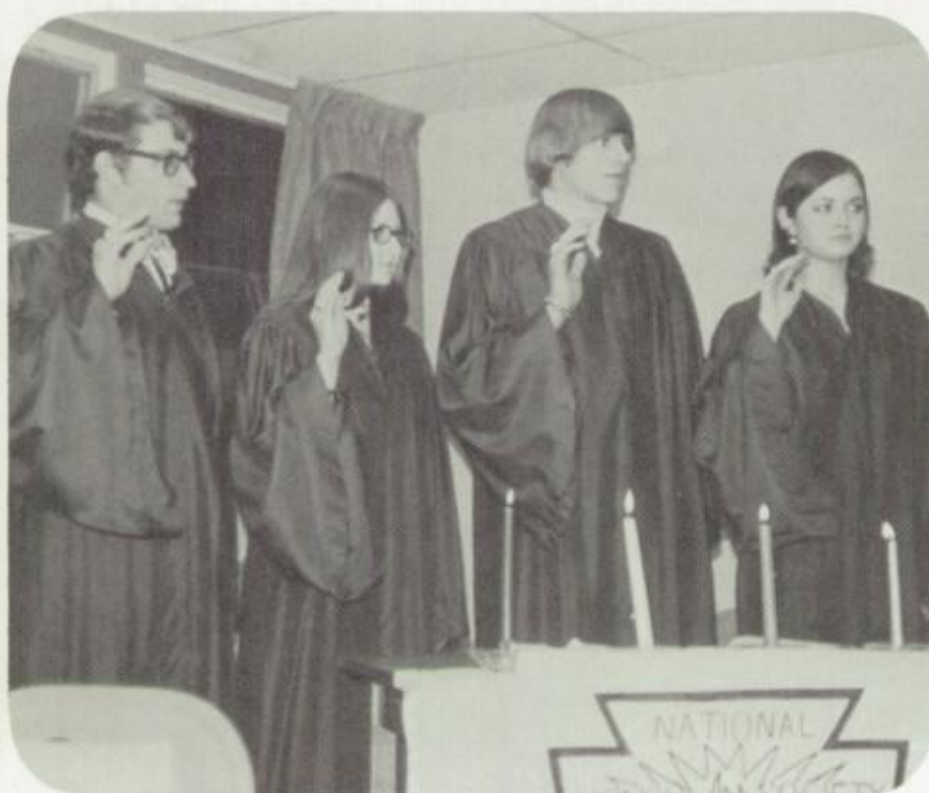

RUSS WITT owns a chain of gormet houses all around the country. What are those special herbs you use?

LORI HESS is now the sole developer of the Lori Hess course. She just ran Mark Eden out of business!
